Civil Action No. _____

ORIGINAL COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES

COMES NOW, Plaintiff in the above styled action, by and through her undersigned attorney of record, and hereby file this Complaint for Damages, respectfully showing this Honorable Court the Following:

1.

The Defendant, Georgia CVS Pharmacy, LLC (hereinafter "CVS"), is a domestic limited liability company licensed to conduct business in the State of Georgia which maintains its principal place of business in Rhode Island and a registered agent in Gwinnett County, Georgia, but is nevertheless subject to the venue and jurisdiction of this Court pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 14-2-510.

2.

The Defendant John Does Nos. 1-10, at all times relevant to this Complaint for Damages, was and is an employee and/or agent of the Defendant CVS, subjecting him to the jurisdiction and venue of this Court as a joint tort-feasor.

3.

The Defendant, CVS, owns and/or operates the retail establishment and premises located at 1271 Gray Highway, Macon, Georgia, 31211 (hereinafter "subject premises").

4.

On or about March 17, 2017, on the subject premises, the Plaintiff, as an invitee, slipped and fell on a dangerous substance to the negligence of the Defendants CVS and John Does Nos. 1-10.

5.

The Defendant John Does Nos. 1-10, an employee and/or agent of the Defendant CVS, was negligent, as pled in ¶4, by failing to provide sufficient warning of the subject dangerous surface, by failing to inspect and discover the dangerous surface, by failing to remove and/or correct the dangerous surface, and by failing to use ordinary care in preventing hazardous conditions that could result in a slip and/or fall.

6.

The Defendant CVS, the owner and/or operator of the subject premises, was negligent, as pled in ¶4, by failing to provide sufficient warning of the subject dangerous surface, by failing to inspect and discover the dangerous surface, by failing to remove and/or correct the dangerous surface, by failing to use ordinary care in preventing hazardous conditions that could result in a slip and/or fall, and by hiring and retaining an unsafe employee(s), to wit: Defendant John Does Nos. 1-10.

7.

As a proximate and foreseeable result of the Defendants' negligence, the Plaintiff was seriously injured, incurring medical expenses in excess of $17,700.00, as well as lost wages in excess of $1.00.

8.

In addition to ¶7, the Plaintiff has endured and will continue to endure pain and suffering.

9.

The Plaintiff has a cause of action against the Defendant John Does Nos. 1-10 for negligence and all other applicable theories of liability.

10.

The Plaintiff has a cause of action against the Defendant CVS for negligence, negligent hiring and retention of an unsafe employee(s), respondeat superior, and all other applicable theories of liability.

11.

The Plaintiff is entitled to recover from the Defendants for her past and future medical expenses, lost wages, past and future pain and suffering, and all other damages as permitted by Law.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that she have a judgment against the Defendants in an amount determined by a fair and impartial jury to be adequate and just.

PLAINTIFF'S FIRST INTERROGATORIES TO DEFENDANT GEORGIA CVS PHARMACY, LLC

COMES NOW, the plaintiff in the above-captioned case, and hereby requires that defendant answer under oath and in writing the following interrogatories within 45 days from the date of service as provided by O.C.G.A. § 9-11-33 and that a copy of the answers be furnished to plaintiff's attorney, David Dozier, P.O. Box 13, Macon, GA 31202.

NOTE A: When used in these interrogatories, the term defendant or any synonym thereof is intended to and shall embrace and include, in addition to the said defendant, all agents, servants, representatives, private investigators and others who are in a position for or may have obtained information for or on behalf of the defendant.

NOTE B: These interrogatories shall be deemed continuing to the extent required by law. You are requested to (1) seasonably supplement any response directed to the identity and location of persons having knowledge of discoverable matters, as well as the identity of each person expected to be called as an expert witness at trial, the subject matter of which he is expected to testify and the substance of his testimony; and (2) amend any prior response if you subsequently learn that the original response was incorrect, or if you learn that although correctly made, the original response is no longer true and the circumstances are such that a failure to amend the response is, in substance, a knowing concealment.

State whether you have ever had a lawsuit other than the present one filed against you as a result of an incident of a nature similar to, or in the same locality as, the incident complained of in this action including for each lawsuit the date it was filed, the court in which it was filed, the name, address and status of each other party in the suit, the name and address of the attorney for Plaintiff, whether there was a trial and the ultimate disposition of the case.

2.

State whether you have ever had a claim filed against you or your insurance carrier as a result of an incident of a nature similar to, or in the same locality as, the incident complained of in this action, and for each, include:

- (a) The name and address of each claimant;
- (b) Whether suit was filed against your insurance carrier, and if so, the name and address of the insurance carrier;
- (c) The date on which it was filed;
- (d) The facts on which it was based;
- (e) The ultimate disposition of the claim;
- (f) Whether a record was made of the claim, and if so, the name and address of the person who has custody of each record.

3.

State whether any person or entity has made a complaint or criticism, orally or in writing, concerning hazardous conditions.

4.

State whether or not any incident report was made with regard to the incident that is the subject of this lawsuit whether the report or document was created by you or a representative of another company or another individual.

5.

State whether or not you have the original copy of any incident report pertaining to this incident and identify the contents of any such report.

6.

State whether or not there are any procedures or policies in effect regarding the presence of hazardous conditions, generally, relating to the prevention and removal of dangerous substances. If there are any such procedures or policies, please describe in detail.

7.

State whether or not there are any procedures or policies in effect for the notification of, or the prevention of dangerous substances. If there are any such procedures or policies, please describe in detail.

8.

State whether or not there are any procedures or policies in effect for the regular inspection of the prevention and removal of dangerous substances. If there are any such procedures or policies, please describe in detail.

9.

Please provide in detail the practices and procedures employed to respond to notification of the presence of dangerous substances, including the names of those who specifically perform the work (individuals or business entities).

10.

Please state whether any statement was obtained by you concerning the incident that is the subject of this lawsuit.

11.

State the names, last known addresses, places of employment, job classification, and present whereabouts of all agents, servants, employees, representatives, private investigators, or others who were employed at the time of the incident that is the subject matter of this lawsuit.

12.

State the names, last known addresses, places of employment, job classification, and present whereabouts of all agents, servants and employees who may have knowledge regarding the subject of this lawsuit.

13.

State the names, last known addresses, places of employment, job classification and present whereabouts of all agents, servants and employees who have had or may have had any communications whatsoever, whether orally or in writing, with Plaintiff.

14.

Please identify any and all persons you expect to call as expert witnesses in the trial of this case and give the substance of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify as well as his or her address and phone number.

15.

Please give the name, current address, place of employment and telephone number of all persons known to you or your attorney who have any knowledge of relevant information, facts or circumstances which bear on any of the issues in the captioned case.

16.

State whether or not Defendant is incorporated, and if so, state:

- (a) The date and state of incorporation;
- (b) The exact name of the corporation as it appears in its articles of incorporation;
- (c) Whether or not the corporation is now in good standing, and if not, the date on which it was administratively suspended or otherwise dissolved;
- (d) If the corporation forfeited its charter, state the exact time it forfeited its charter and give the names and addresses of the officers of the corporation;
- (e) If the defendant is not incorporated, state whether or not it is a partnership, and if so, give all names of partners or if it is a municipal corporation or a political organization, state its exact name and in what state it is organized to do business.
